GUIDELINES

Programme objectives: The long-term goals that the Creative Force programme aims to achieve.

Expected results: The immediate results or effects that the project will have achieved when it has been completed. Results must be specific, measurable, agreed, realistic and time-related (SMART).

Target group: The target group consists of agents of change and opinion-makers who, through culture or the media, work with creative processes to strengthen democratisation and human rights. These can be institutions and groups of cultural actors and journalists, other actors within media organisations as well as human rights defenders and political activists, women's rights groups, youth organisations or other relevant actors who work to increase democratisation and freedom of expression.

Final beneficiaries: Final beneficiaries are groups and/or individuals who are directly positively influenced by the project outcomes, especially vulnerable groups in the programme countries and regions; women, children and youth as well as minority groups in especially vulnerable positions such as LGBTQ individuals or people with disabilities. Are the final beneficiaries especially marginalized or discriminated against in some way? If so, explain.

Stakeholders: Stakeholders are individuals or institutions in society at large that may, directly or indirectly, positively or negatively, affect or be affected by a project. Examples of stakeholders in the field of culture and media are public authorities, decision makers, sectorial organisations etc.

Indicators: An indicator is an instrument which is used to measure how well the project has succeeded in bringing about the proposed change(s).

Gender equality and non-discrimination: Comment on the project and the target group with regard to gender equality and discrimination (including sex, transgender identity or expression, ethnicity, religion or other belief, disability, sexual orientation and age)? How do you plan to work with gender equality and non-discrimination in the project?
