INTRODUCTION

The goal of the Swedish Institute (SI) is for the scholarship holders to play an active role in the society in which they live. Your scholarship application should show an ambition to work with issues which, within your context and field of study/research, contribute to a global development in general and to the development of your country and region in particular.

The Swedish Institute is looking for applicants who display both intellectual ability and leadership potential, with the prospect of becoming leaders in their chosen fields. Applicants should have a clear idea of how the scholarship will benefit their country and region. In your answers below, please explain how you qualify for a scholarship to Sweden. You should not repeat information already stated in your CV, but elaborate and expand on the driving forces in your life, and things that inspire you.
